Subject: Meeting with Toll

The latest on this issue is that Paul Little is in Asia next week and that David has his full delegated powers.

David is working with Paul and Neil to ascertain whether there is any movement that they can make on their price.

That will result in a meeting with the Minister on Monday late afternoon which is on the basis of "this is it".

One of the drivers for this is Tolls need to go to customers next week with a 10% surcharge on prices because we have advised that there are no further extensions.

As details for the meeting become clearer either Brian or I will advise.

Regards

Chris
