Hello Juston and John

We are preparing to send through today the draft SCI and Operating plan numbers for FY13-15. We have modelled a range of potential scenarios for the next 3 years. However recognising these numbers are point estimates, and given the volatility of markets we would appreciate the opportunity to you through these numbers directly, to ensure you have the broader context.

Let me know how we could best facilitate this, either in person or via video hookup.

I look forward to your advice.

Regards, Anthony
