Vote: Prime Minister and Cabinet

Title: Maintaining Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet (DPMC) Capability

Description: Funding to maintain and enhance capability so that DPMC can continue to meet the increasing expectations of it in terms of leadership, high standard of performance, and the complex output requirements such as supporting emergency planning, legislative requirements and risk management.

Theme: Other

Theme Objective: Other

Performance Information

Performance Text

Additional funding is required to ensure that DPMC continues to safely deliver its outputs to the high standard required by the Prime Minister, the Governor-General and the Cabinet. DPMC's Statement of Intent states that "To improve performance over the next three years, DPMC will continue to focus on assessment, management and enhancement of capability in some key priority areas." It is crucial that the Prime Minister is well informed and supported on a range of policy and wider issues.

Initiative No: 4413

Vote: Prime Minister and CabinetTitle: Restoration of Government House WellingtonDescription: There is strong evidence of service failure in many parts of Government House. The House requires restoration to be fit for purpose. $2.000 million is required in 2007/08 to obtain resource consents and complete detailed design. Budget 2008 will seek funding for construction costs.Theme: National IdentityTheme Objective: Connecting to our heritagePerformance Information*Performance Text

The maintenance of Government House is a key Service Performance objective for DPMC. Government House is a Grade 1 Heritage building and an important part of NZ's cultural fabric, integral to our sense of nationhood. Heritage policy requires that the building is maintained.

The project will remove shortcomings in serviceability and ensure compliance with regulatory requirements. It will also propose options for enhanced sustainability in line with Govt3 and Energy Efficiency and Conservation Authority initiatives and policies.
