Subject: Re: Draft summary of position document

I am OK with this but would like to suggest that 31 May could, from a parliamentary angle, be a little difficult as the debate on Budget will be taking place in the House and with the Budget the Thursday before, time with the Ministers may be difficult.

Could it be 30 June or earlier in June?

Regards

Chris

Re: Draft summary of position document

Looks good. A couple of comments:
TTL separation based on same process as RailCo balance sheet validation
The 31 May 2008 settlement date is our suggestion. We didn't really discuss this?

What about a statement on the business definition (given Greg's confirmation of the approach)?
