2 Commencement

This Act comes into force on [to come].

Part 1Preliminary provisions*3 Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to improve the quality of Acts of Parliament and other kinds of legislation by—

4 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— legislation has the meaning set out in section 5

2

principles means the principles of responsible regulation stated in section 7(1)

public official means an officer or employee of a public entity.

5 Meaning of legislation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, legislation means any of the following that has the force of law in New Zealand:

- (a) an Act of the Parliament of New Zealand or of the General Assembly;
- (b) a legislative instrument that is a regulation, or that is required to be treated as a regulation, for the purposes of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 or the Regulations (Disallowance) Act 1989;
- (c) any other legislative instrument made under an enactment by the Governor-General in Council, a Minister of the Crown, a public official, or a public entity.

6 Act binds the Crown

This Act binds the Crown.

Part 2

Principles of responsible regulation and their effect

Principles of responsible regulation

7 Principles

- (1) The principles of responsible regulation are that, except as provided in subsection (2), legislation should—

Rule of law

- (a) be consistent with the following aspects of the rule of law:
- (i) the law should be clear and accessible;
 - (ii) the law should not adversely affect rights and liberties, or impose obligations, retrospectively;
 - (iii) every person is equal before the law;
 - (iv) issues of legal right and liability should be resolved by the application of law, rather than the exercise of administrative discretion:

Liberties

- (b) not diminish a person's liberty, personal security, freedom of choice or action, or rights to own, use, and dispose of property, except as is necessary to provide for, or protect, any such liberty, freedom, or right of another person:

Taking of property

- (c) not take or impair, or authorise the taking or impairment of, property without the consent of the owner unless—
- (i) the taking or impairment is necessary in the public interest; and
 - (ii) full compensation for the taking or impairment is provided to the owner; and
 - (iii) that compensation is provided, to the extent practicable, by or on behalf of the persons who obtain the benefit of the taking or impairment:

Taxes and charges

- (d) not impose, or authorise the imposition of, a tax except by or under an Act:

- (e) not impose, or authorise the imposition of, a charge for goods or services (including the exercise of a function or power) unless the amount of the charge is reasonable in relation to both—
- (i) the benefits that payers are likely to obtain from the goods or services; and
 - (ii) the costs of efficiently providing the goods or services:

Role of courts

- (f) preserve the courts' role of authoritatively determining the meaning of legislation:
- (g) if the legislation authorises a Minister, a public entity, or a public official to make decisions that may adversely affect any liberty, freedom, or right of a kind referred to in paragraph (b),—
- (i) provide a right of appeal on the merits against those decisions to a court or other independent body; and
 - (ii) state appropriate criteria for making those decisions:

Good law-making

- (h) not be made unless, to the extent practicable, the persons likely to be affected by the legislation have been consulted:
- (i) not be made (or, in the case of an Act, not be introduced to the House of Representatives) unless there has been a careful evaluation of—
- (i) the issue concerned; and
 - (ii) the effectiveness of any relevant existing legislation and common law; and
 - (iii) whether the public interest requires that the issue be addressed; and
 - (iv) any options (including non-legislative options) that are reasonably available for addressing the issue; and
 - (v) who is likely to benefit, and who is likely to suffer a detriment, from the legislation; and
 - (vi) all potential adverse consequences of the legislation (including any potential legal liability of the Crown or any other person) that are reasonably foreseeable:

- (j) produce benefits that outweigh the costs of the legislation to the public or persons:
 - (k) be the most effective, efficient, and proportionate response to the issue concerned that is available.
- (2) Any incompatibility with the principles is justified to the extent that it is reasonable and can be demonstrably justified in a free and democratic society.
 - (3) Nothing in this section limits the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.

Certification

- 8 Certificate as to compatibility of legislation with principles
- (1) The Minister responsible for a Government Bill, and the chief executive of the public entity that will be responsible for administering the resulting Act immediately after it has been enacted, must each sign a written certificate containing the information specified in section 9—
 - (a) before the Bill is introduced to the House of Representatives; and
 - (b) before the commencement of the Bill's third reading in the House of Representatives.
 - (2) The member of Parliament that is in charge of a Bill (other than a Government Bill) must sign a written certificate containing the information specified in section 9—
 - (a) before the Bill is introduced to the House of Representatives; and
 - (b) before the commencement of the Bill's third reading in the House of Representatives.
 - (3) The Minister responsible for legislation of a kind referred to in section 5(b) or (c) (if a Minister is responsible), and the chief executive of the public entity that will be responsible for administering that legislation immediately after it is made, must each sign a written certificate containing the information specified in section 9 before that legislation is made.
 - (4) Despite any other enactment, a Minister may not delegate his or her duties under this section to anyone other than a member of the Executive Council, and a chief executive may not delegate his or her duties under this section to anyone other than a person who is acting as chief executive in his or her place.

9 Content of certificate

- (1) A certificate signed by a person for the purpose of section 8 must state, in the person's opinion,—
 - (a) whether the legislation is compatible with each of the principles; and
 - (b) if not, the respects in which it is incompatible; and
 - (c) if paragraph (b) applies,—
 - (i) whether the incompatibility is justified under section 7(2); and
 - (ii) if so, the reasons for that justification and, if not, the reasons why the legislation is proceeding despite the lack of justification.
- (2) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply to a certificate given by a chief executive of a public entity if a Minister has also given a certificate under section 8.

10 Certificate must be presented to House of Representatives

A certificate in respect of a Bill for the purposes of section 8 must be presented to the House of Representatives as soon as practicable after the certificate is signed.

Application of principles

11 Interpretation compatible with principles to be preferred

- (1) Wherever an enactment can be given a meaning that is compatible with the principles (after taking account of section 7(2)), that meaning is to be preferred to any other meaning.
- (2) The Court may, on application or its own motion, grant leave for the Solicitor-General to be joined as a party to proceedings in which subsection (1) may be applied.
- (3) Subsection (1) applies to an enactment made before the date on which this Act comes into force only after the 10th anniversary of that date.

Compare: 1990 No 109 s 6

12 Court may declare that legislation incompatible with principles

- (1) A court may, in any proceedings, declare that a provision of any legislation is incompatible with 1 or more of the principles specified in section 7(1)(a) to (h) (unless the incompatibility is justified under section 7(2)).
- (2) However, a court may not make a declaration unless, before the declaration is made,—
 - (a) the public entity responsible for administering the legislation concerned (if any) has been given the opportunity to provide to both the person seeking the declaration and the court a statement as to whether the legislation is incompatible with the principles; and
 - (b) the Solicitor-General has been given notice of, and the opportunity to be joined as a party to, the proceedings.
- (3) In this section and section 13,—

court means the High Court, the Court of Appeal, or the Supreme Court proceedings means—

 - (a) proceedings that relate only to an application for a declaration under subsection (1) or the Declaratory Judgments Act 1908; or
 - (b) judicial review proceedings.
- (4) Subsection (1) applies to legislation made before the date on which this Act comes into force only after the 10th anniversary of that date.

Compare: UK Human Rights Act 1998 ss 4, 5.

13 Effect of court declaration

- (1) A declaration under section 12—
 - (a) does not affect the validity, continuing operation, or enforcement of the provision in respect of which it is given; and
 - (b) is not binding on the parties to the proceedings in which it is made.
- (2) A court may award costs against or in favour of any party to proceedings under section 12, but may not make an order for an injunction or compensation or anything else in conjunction with or in respect of—

- (a) a declaration under section 12; or
- (b) a certificate given, or a failure to give a certificate, under section 8.

14 Legal effect of principles

- (1) The principles do not have the force of law (except as provided in sections 11 to 13).
- (2) No court may, in relation to any legislation (whether made before or after the commencement of this Act),—
 - (a) hold any provision of the legislation to be impliedly repealed or revoked, or to be in any way invalid or ineffective; or
 - (b) decline to apply any provision of the legislation—
 by reason only that the provision is incompatible with any of the principles or that any provision of this Act has not been complied with.

Compare: 1990 No 109 s 4

Part 3
