Initiative No: 7723

Vote: Revenue

Title: Child Support Re-appropriation

Description: In Budget 2009, Cabinet allocated $2.996 million to Inland Revenue to assist with the collection of Child Support debt in Australia. The Australian Child Support Agency has since confirmed that they are no longer able to honour the reciprocal collection arrangement. Inland Revenue is now seeking to achieve the intended outcome using New Zealand-based staff and off-shore contractors.

Additional recommendations

- 5 agreed that Inland Revenue re-appropriate funding intended for additional reciprocal child support debt cases with the Australian Child Support Agency, to achieve the intended outcome using New Zealand-based staff and off-shore contractors;
- 6 noted that no appropriation changes are required and that there is no fiscal impact to the Crown.
