Extension of time

On 5 May 2016 I wrote to you extending the time limit for deciding on your request by an additional 20 working days.

Consultation about your request

The Treasury sent emails to you on 5 May and 20 May 2016 regarding the scope of your request. We have received no response from you.

Decision on your request

My response to your request uses the numbering in your letter and is grouped into two sections: available information and information that is not separately recorded.

Responses where information is available:

97. How many requests made under the provisions of the Official Information Act 1982 did you or your office receive during the period 1 January 2015 - 1 January 2016 across all your portfolios and responsibilities?

In the 2015 calendar year the Treasury received 355 OIA requests. I enclose a spreadsheet summarising the OIA requests received that provides the information you have requested that is available without substantial collation or research.

- How many of the requests had the time limit for response extended?

104 OIA requests had the time limit extended.

- How many of the requests received, for which the time limit for response was not extended, have not yet been responded to?

None.

- How many of the requests received, for which the time limit for response was extended, have not yet been responded to?

None.

- On how many occasions did you or your office suggest a charge for the supply of official information in response to a requester?

None.

- On how many occasions did you or your office charge a requester for the supply of official information?

None.

Responses where information is not separately recorded:

The information requested in the following parts of your request is not separately recorded. In order to fully respond, officials would need to retrieve and analyse each response to every OIA request received in 2015. This would require a substantial amount of work and diversion of resources. The enclosed spreadsheet shows the available information.

98. For the request made under the provisions of the Official Information Act 1982 and received during the period 1 January 2015 -1 January 2016:

- How many transferred requests were transferred later than 10 working days after the day on which the request was received?
- How many of the requests received were responded to within 20 working days?
- How many of the requests received, for which the time limit for response was not extended, were responded to within 21 - 30 working days, 31 - 40 working days, or 41 or more working days?
- How many of the requests received, for which the time limit for response was extended, were responded to within 21 - 30 working days, 31 - 40 working days, or 41 or more working days?
- How many of your responses were granted in full, partially refused, or refused in full?

99. Where identified, please include a breakdown of the figures provided to the above questions for the following categories:
- a. Labour Party MPs or staff working on behalf of Labour Party MPs*
  - b. Green Party MPs or staff working on behalf of Green Party MPs*
  - c. New Zealand First MPs or staff working on behalf of New Zealand First MPs*
  - d. Any other Parliamentary political party*
  - e. Journalists/reporters*
  - f. Bloggers*

The information requested above is not separately recorded. Consequently, section 18(f) of the OIA applies:

that the information requested cannot be made available without substantial collation or research.

In relying on section 18(f) of the OIA, I have considered the provisions of section 18A of the Act. However, I do not believe these provisions would enable me to grant your request. I have also considered the provisions of section 18B of the Act. The Treasury has attempted to engage with you and your office about the scope of your request but has received no response.

Please note that this letter (with your personal details removed) and enclosed documents may be published on the Treasury website.

This fully covers the information you requested. You have the right to ask the Ombudsman to investigate and review my decision.

Yours sincerely

Jeremy Salmond
Treasury Solicitor and Manager
