Hon Peter Dunne

WELLINGTON

Dear Peter Dunne

In early December you forwarded to me the Four-year Budget Plan prepared by the Inland Revenue Department for Vote Revenue as part of the preparation for Budget 2011.

Budget Ministers met to discuss the Four-year Budget Plans on Wednesday 15 December and agreed that the Plan for Vote Revenue should be accepted, except for the proposals below:

[2]

Budget Ministers would like you to submit business cases regarding these capital proposals by 8 February 2011.

Capital proposals will be considered within the $1.39 billion allowance for new capital spending in Budget 2011. The Government will need to determine the relative priority of these proposals.

Your department should submit financial recommendations in March to give effect to any agreed changes. Following that, estimates documents will be due in April. Treasury will publish further budget guidance, including the timetable, shortly.

Yours sincerely

Hon Bill English
Minister of Finance
