Hon John Carter
Parliament Buildings
WELLINGTON

Dear John

In early December you forwarded to me the Four-year Budget Plans prepared by the agencies below as part of the preparation of Budget 2011:

- Department of Internal Affairs (Votes Emergency Management and Racing); and
- Ministry of Social Development (Vote Senior Citizens).

Budget Ministers met to discuss the Four-year Budget Plans on Wednesday 15 December. At that meeting we agreed that the Plans submitted for Votes Racing and Senior Citizens should be accepted as submitted.

Budget Ministers also agreed that the Four-year Budget Plan submitted for Vote Emergency Management should be resubmitted by 10 February. The plan should more fully consider the proposal for additional funding for the 'Get Ready Get Thru' campaign, including options to fund it within baselines.

Your departments should submit financial recommendations in March to give effect to the agreed changes in appropriations. Following that, estimates documents will be due in April. Treasury will publish further Budget guidance, including the timetable, shortly.

Yours sincerely

Hon Bill English
Minister of Finance
