Hon David Carter
Parliament Buildings
WELLINGTON

Dear David

In early December you forwarded to me the Four-year Budget Plan prepared by the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry for Votes Agriculture and Forestry and Biosecurity as part of the preparation for Budget 2011.

Budget Ministers met to discuss the Four-Year Budget Plans on Wednesday 15 December. At that meeting we agreed that the Plan for Votes Agriculture and Forestry and Biosecurity should be accepted as submitted.

However, Ministers are aware that a proposal for Irrigation Investment is being prepared. The proposal will need to go to Cabinet by March to be considered for Budget 2011. As a Cabinet we will need to determine the relative priority of this proposal and how it will be funded as part of the Budget. Cabinet agreed allocations of the operating allowance for Budget 2011 on 26 October. Funding for further proposals will require us to find other offsetting savings.

Your department should submit financial recommendations in March to give effect to the agreed changes to appropriations. Following that, estimates documents will be due in April. Treasury will publish further Budget guidance, including the timetable, shortly.

Yours sincerely

Hon Bill English
Minister of Finance
