Hon Tariana Turia
Parliament Buildings
WELLINGTON

Dear Tariana Turia

In early December you forwarded to me the Four-year Budget Plan from the Department of Internal Affairs for Vote Community and Voluntary Sector.

Budget Ministers met to discuss the Four-year Budget Plans on Wednesday 15 December. At that meeting we agreed that the Plan submitted for Vote Community and Voluntary Sector should be accepted as submitted.

If you have further proposals that you wish to advance, these will need to be funded through reprioritisation within existing baselines.

Your department should submit financial recommendations in March to give effect to the agreed changes to appropriations. Following that, estimates documents will be due in April. Treasury will publish further budget guidance, including the timetable, shortly.

Yours sincerely

Hon Bill English
Minister of Finance
