Hon Anne Tolley
Minister of Education
Minister Responsible for the Education Review Office
5.1L EW The Beehive
Parliament Buildings
WELLINGTON

Dear Anne

In early February you forwarded to me the resubmitted Four-year Budget Plan prepared by the Ministry of Education for Vote Education as part of the preparation for Budget 2011.

Budget Ministers met to discuss the fiscal implications of the Canterbury earthquake, resubmitted Four-Year Budget Plans, and the capital package on Monday 28 February.

At that meeting we agreed that the Plan submitted for Vote Education should be accepted, noting that some amendments will be needed to the financial details following the March baseline update, and that these amendments will be reflected in the final financial recommendations submitted.

We also agreed to invite you to use an operating to capital swap within the Education allocation, to fund the Early Learning Information System<sup>[2]</sup>

Given that a detailed business case is not scheduled for the Early Learning Information System prior to final Budget 2011 decisions being made, this funding will be held as a tagged contingency.

Decisions on the remaining Vote Education capital proposals have been deferred until the next Budget Ministers meeting. This will give Budget Ministers time to consider the costs associated with the Canterbury earthquake and the impact these will have on the operating and capital allowances.

Your department should submit financial recommendations in March to give effect to any agreed changes to appropriations. Following that, estimates documents will be due in April.

Yours sincerely

Hon Bill English
Minister of Finance
