

What do you think about persistent disadvantage in New Zealand?

The New Zealand Productivity Commission wants your input to help focus a new inquiry into breaking the cycle of disadvantage in New Zealand.

Please answer these questions by 27 August 2021 to help focus the inquiry on the areas that matter.

Question 1. What are the main aspects of disadvantage that should be investigated in this inquiry?

The inequality of income to housing costs. More and more Kiwis are housing poor.

Question 2. Where should the Commission focus its research effort?

Short Term rental accommodation regulation and also the first home buyers grant.

Question 3. Where should government focus its effort on finding solutions?

Regulation of Short term rental accommodation like airbnb. Thousands of houses are being taken away from the housing stock.

Question 4. Is there anything else that you would like to see covered in this inquiry?

Reasses the First home buyers Grant.
