

N G A T A K E O T E W H A N A U

family & whanau capacities for healthy development

FUNCTIONS	TASKS	QUALITIES	APPLICATIONS
MANAAKITIA: the capacity to care	Responsiveness to individuals  Responsibility for less abled	Love  Compassion  Protection	Care of elderly  Care of children  Care of sick
TOHATOHATIA: the capacity to share	Meet others' needs  Fair distribution of goods Interdependence	Generosity  Selflessness  Fairness	Support when financially distressed  Distribution of goods (fish, crops)
PUPURI TAONGA: the capacity for guardianship	Protection & wise management of cultural, intellectual & physical properties	Trusteeship  Management  Communication	Language & cultural development  Whanau economic base  Utilisation of whanau land
WHAKAMANA: the capacity to empower	Access to resources  Development of resources  Assisted entry into wider society	Effective leadership  Advocacy  Liaison	Marae role for whanau  Participation in hapu & iwi  Health, education, housing
WHAKATAKOTO TIKANGA: the capacity to plan ahead	Readiness for change  Needs of future generations	Vision  Responsibility  Organisation	Retirement planning  Education for mokopuna  Economic investment

<sup>1</sup> Article by Durie, M in Mai I Rangiatea: Maori wellbeing & development: pp10: Auckland University Press with Bridget Williams Books

